ITHACA

A special election will be held in Ithaca Monday, May 8, to vote on bonding the village for $18,000 for paving. The state trunk line passes through Ithaca and the proposition before the people is whether they will bond the village for the necessary amount of money to complete the pavement built by the state commencing on St. Johns street.

The state will pave the roadbed 20 feet in width until it meets the pavement on Center street. Then will commence again where the pavement now ends on Pine River street and continue to the corporation line north providing the village will build the other four feet on each side of the paving done by the state. If the pavement is not built at this time Ithaca will not get it at all and will only have a gravel road for her part of the trunk line road, it is said.
